HRSC Meeting Minutes

- Happy New Year and welcome back Sportsman.
- Igor Nastaskin Led The Pledge.
- Geoff Graue passed the hat at the end of our Holiday Dinner to come in just under budget. As usual, a job well done by Geoff Graue. Thanks Geoff!
- The membership likes the new location at St. Katherine's. The band seems to be well liked, and the consensus is to do the same thing next year.
- Our new Hats are kept in the shed and available to membership for $10-. See Jon Stott for Purchase.
- Jeff Wells talked about the new upcoming Golf tournament being held this weekend at the Marriott January 12th 2008. Come one come all to this new venue. A good time will be had by all indeed.
- Chili cook-off will be chaired by Al Ortiz. The question is, who will judge the chili cook-off? The Texas Lucy Girls? Two weeks from today.
- Steak and joke night in February, Art Mckarns is chairing the event. He says he is prepared for the event.
- City Government night is coming up. Membership is looking for mucky mucks.
- If you know of any City Beurocrats, let us know who they are so they can be invited.
- Items of topic, Pot holes, Half-way Houses. Some members want to know where the money is being spent. Parks, Green trash cans.
- New member Shay Redmond was brought in by Rick Perious, and friend of Rick's is a Friend of ours. Wife Paula, Daughter is a freshman at south, son at Richardson, has lived in the Riviera for 12 years. Welcome aboard.
- Perez and Barrington to chair the Beer tasting. Igor Nastaskin will act as lead chair for the Sportsman's club in the "Relay for Life".
- Motion to close. Meeting closed.
