

Hollywood Riviera Sportsman's Club
Meeting Minutes – Annual Beer Tasting
April 25, 2007

- Meeting called to order at 7:25 pm.
- The pledge of allegiance was led by Paul Perez.
- The club will be sponsoring a funnel cake booth as part of the festivities at Richardson Middle School Promotion party June 21st at Richardson. We will combine some shopping for supplies with the event on the following weekend. Perius is the Chairman and more information to come later.
- We will NOT be participating Riviera Festival this year. We were not able to work out an agreeable booth rental, profit sharing, etc.
- We will have a new venue to replace the Riviera Festival as we will be setting up the booth at the PV Street Fair on 06/23-24 on Silver Spur. It should be similar to MB Fair. It is open until 10:00 pm but we will likely be open till approx. 6:00pm.
- Fernandez reported that pancake breakfast tickets are available to any organizations or clubs interested in participating. Date is Sat. May 26th. Remember approx. 75% of the proceeds go back to the selling organization.
- No report on Philanthropy this meeting.
- Scholarship judging is at Dave Sargeant's house on the 26th. Same budget as last few years of 5X $500.
- Collignon announced that HRSC was mentioned in the Riviera Garden Club newsletter and that we are always looking for new members. He will bring in their calendar for possible joint event or future communication.
- Nastaskin gave a report on the American Cancer Society Relay for Life. He filled all spots and our goal s to raise $4,000.
- Update on Coy Chandlers wife broke her hip but is doing better at time of meeting.
- A guest was introduced by Alan Watt. His name is Hal Burton and is a 5 yr Riviera resident and is a Substitute teacher in Torrance. By the end of the evening we had a full fledged member – welcome Hal!
- Meeting adjourned at 7:47pm.
- Beer tasting was kicked off by chairmen Barrington/Perez.
- There were 4 European beers (non-German) and some great sausages grilled up on the barbe.
- For the first time ever there was tie for first place.
 - Tied for first – Czechvar -from the Check Republic
 - Tied for first – Birra Moretti – from Italy
 - Third place – Carlsberg – from Denmark
 - Fourth place – Kiper - from Poland
- Speaker auction – Bob Gavola could not be outbid by several interested parties and couldn't handle not having “virtual” ownership for another 365 days.
- Raffle was held and beer tasting officially ended.

- Attendees: J. Barrington, C. Collignon, R. Dugel, S. Fernandez, R. Gavola, L. Goldblatt, G. Graue, L. Gustafson, A. Hill, J. Kropp, I. Nastaskin, P. Perez, R. Perez, R. Perius, W. Perry, C. Spidell, P. Stemmler, J. Stott, P. Virobik, A. Watt, D. Young, G. Zettler.